Thank you to Vocational Director, Ivan Ryrie for organising a visit to the Rural Fire Brigade in Batemans Bay. We are full of admiration for the hard-working volunteers. They cover the area in Batemans Bay but also overlap with Nelligen and Mogo Brigades, especially for vehicle accident rescues as they have expertise in that area. It was encouraging to hear that they were bucking the trend and had managed to enlist some young volunteers. Captain Ian Aitken encouraged us all to have a bush fire plan in place especially as this year is expected to be a terrible bushfire season after all the dry weather. Nicole volunteered to check out the truck as most of us could not even get up into the cab it was so high! We followed on with a wonderful banquet at the Sawatdee Thai Restaurant. A very enjoyable evening!
