What a beautiful evening to showcase Holmes Lookout on Thursday! Named after Captain Holmes RAN, it is a magical place with spectacular views of Batemans Bay. Christine from National Parks brought us up to date with plans of covered sitting areas, electric barbecues and new toilet facilities. Total cost of $80,000. She spoke of uncommon animal species and rare vegetation, including orchids plus the indigenous history of the area, which make the place pretty special. Rotary have a history there too and the BBQ tables from 1968 are still in good order after fifty years! A big thank you to Dave and Mi for organising the gourmet sausage sizzle, which tasted all the better for being eaten outside and in good company.
