Rotary has been visible in the community over the Festive Season. Donuts were in great demand at the Carols on 10 December at Hanging Rock, the Christmas Markets were busy with last minute shopping, the Christmas Races were a great success on Christmas Eve and at the Bunnings Sausage Sizzle on New Year's Eve not one sausage was left! Thank you to everyone who gave their time and effort to make these a success.

Frivolity and Fun at the Christmas Dinner

The Christmas Dinner was held in the newly refurbished "bubble" at the Soldiers Club and it was a great night to end the Rotary year. Ron Sydenham was presented with a Special Certificate in recognition of his lengthy service in the Club and we congratulate him. Mi was delighted to win the beautiful Christmas cake made by Chris. The ladies excelled this year in the entertainment with the 12 Cocktails of Christmas. Special thanks to Gay for her "Bikini Cocktail" and apologies to Val, who is somewhat concealed by the light fitting in the photo! We had jokes and the Queens Speech. Next year it is the men's turn to entertain! The only downside to the evening was we were saying farewell to Jen North. We will miss her but wish her well as she moves back to Victoria.
