Meeting 2732

ANZACs Remembered

Rod McClure gave a most powerful address to the Club. This historian and guide at the War Memorial in Canberra brought alive the experience of visiting Turkey and in particular ANZAC Cove and the surrounding battle fields.

The Club was most fortunate to have Rod address us and to tell the tales from the Battlefield. These tales were new and brought home even more the sacrifice made by so many.

The address brought the ANAZC tale alive and no members could have left the meeting unmoved by the passion and knowledge of Rod and of his experiences amongst the graves, amongst the visitors to the site and from his contact with the Turkish people who were genuine in their admiration for the ANZAC men.

Thanks to David Ashford for bringing Rod to us.

From the President Linking things together

This was an emotional week for our nation as ANZAC Day was celebrated. Our Club had a series of events which highlighted our thanks for those who served our nation so well so many years ago.

Peter Wood laid the wreath at the ANZAC Day parade in Batemans Bay. This was reported as the best parade and service held in the area.

This week Rod McClure gave a most interesting address for 75 minutes on his experiences at ANZAC Cove.

To conclude the week the RMC Duntroon Band gave a most amazing concert at Batemans Bay High School.

All reports I have had indicated that this was an emotional concert for many but one of the best that has been delivered.

My thanks to all who paid a part in linking the ANZAC Theme through this week so that we could remember those who paid the ultimate sacrifice- the giving of their life.

Lest we forget

What a day! Thank you to all those who helped a little and a lot today for the Duntroon Band concert. It all went very well and many commented that the combination of song selection and the projected images behind made this the best concert ever!

A HUGE thanks to David and Mi Ashford who are now relaxing on Green Island after organising all tickets and publicity and all bought food and drinks. A huge thank you also to the many Rotarians and partners who contributed a salad or dessert and who helped on the day. We can only do it so well with team work.

Neil Simpson

I know who deserves a HUGE thank you. It is Neil Simpson!!! First to arrive and last to leave. And perpetual motion all day. Problem solving, big or small, an eye for detail.

Thanks Neil.
Bruce Gruber
